Andrea Francisco
 4 Year Al Éxito Ottumwa
 Iowa State University, Architecture
On an Al Éxito trip for Latinas in the field of STEM, I was in awe that there were women of color representing me. They showed me that Latinas were capable of thriving in a male-dominated profession.

Vanessa Hernandez
 7 Year Al Éxito Clarion Goldfield Dows
 Grand View University, Graphic Design/ Sociology
“Once I found out about Al Éxito I knew I would make a new team. Coming into this program has shaped me into the better person that I can become, that others don’t get chance that I am able to have.”

Aryanna Marquez Acevedo
 1 Year Al Éxito Collegiate

“Al Éxito has provided me with a community of students that truly care for me and are constantly trying to show me that I matter.”

Vanessa Medel Chavarria
 5 Year Al Éxito Marshalltown
 Grand View University, Education
“Al Éxito has helped me build my leadership skills, building friendships with others and how to stay in touch with my culture. My participation taught me to make my voice known...”

Agustin Cruz Oropeza
 8 Year Al Éxito Collegiate
 Iowa State University, Architecture

“The mindset Al Éxito has installed has pushed me to participate in activities I would normally not participate in and volunteer more. Because of Al Éxito I have created and understood the importance of bonding with the community. I have learned skills such as public speaking, professionalism and received many opportunities that are normally not available to people like me.”
